

Certification by the bidder that he is complying and will continue to comply with each approved code of fair competition means that all the provisions of the Code for this industry must be completely complied with. This particularly means that all labor provisions must be exactly complied with, all fair trade practice regulations must be faithfully followed, and the Code assessment must be paid.

The above order is important to our industry because no member of it can execute PWA or HOLC work unless these provisions are carefully followed.

General

The machinery for the administration of our Code is now functioning. Every member of the industry now has an opportunity to work under the fair trade practice regulations as provided for in the Code. Your compliance and cooperation will facilitate the successful administration of this agency. The benefits you receive will be measured by your enthusiastic support. This agency pledges fair and impartial administration.

New!

Anaconda White Lead challenges comparison

PAINTERS are amazed when they compare the new Anaconda White Lead to the kind they've used for years... the kind they considered perfect! There is no escaping the difference! Anaconda White Lead brings whiter whites, cleaner tints. And it's unsurpassed for durability, brushing qualities and coverage.

You can't pass up this challenge to prove this for yourself! It costs you nothing. Just mail the coupon for free sample. Then brush Anaconda White Lead and the kind you now use—side by side. As a result of a simple test like this, painters by the hundreds have discovered that here is a superior white lead! Yet it costs no more!

3 TYPES—Anaconda White Lead contains only pure electrolytic lead, far whiter and purer than any other kind, doubly ground with pure linseed oil. It is made in 3 forms: heavy paste, soft paste and "all-purpose" paste.
