Simultaneously Russia has continued pulling its troops out of Cuba until only those manning the surface-to-air missiles are left. Simultaneously, when the United States was criticized all over Latin America for the Panamanian riots, Moscow newspapers buried the story. There were no critical editorials accusing the United States of bloody imperialism.

These are some things the American public hasn't entirely known about which Sen. Fulbright knows in detail and which were behind the historic speech urging the Johnson administration to scrap the boycott and patch up relations with Cuba.

Many friendly diplomats who watched Kennedy miss the boat on Berlin when Khrushchev held out the olive branch in the winter of 1961 fear Johnson will miss the olive branch on Cuba in 1964.
