Nevada Demos Nominate Ex-Navy Man For Congress

RENO — (AP)— A 36-year-old former Navy radar specialist has been nominated by Nevada Democrats for the state's sole congressional seat.

He is Walter Baring, a Reno city councilman, who polled 13,550 votes on the basis of unofficial returns from practically all of the state's 301 precincts. His opponent, Simon W. Conwell, a Rawhide, Nev., mining man, had 5,327 votes.

Baring in November will oppose Rep. Charles Russell, Republican incumbent who was unopposed in the primary.

SALT LAKE CITY — (AP)— Utah's bitter governorship election of 1944 will be repeated in November, 1948.

Democrat incumbent Herbert B. Maw will oppose Republican J. Bracken Lee, former mayor of Price, in the general election. The two won their party's nominations in the primary election. Four years ago, Lee lost to Maw by 1,045 after a recount threw out several thousand votes on technicalities and irregularities.

PHOENIX, Ariz.—(AP)— Acting Gov. Dan E. Garvey apparently has defeated U. S. Representative Richard F. Harless and five other candidates in the primary for the Democratic nomination for governor of Arizona.

As late returns from the primary came in yesterday, Garvey's lead was steadily increasing.

With complete returns from 355 precincts and incomplete from 115 of the state's 437, the vote for Garvey was 22,039 and for Harless 17,590.
