Subject: Additional Info on Western Caucus Winter Policy Meeting in Vegas

The Western Caucus Foundation is following up with you as we've had questions from Member schedulers about our annual winter policy meeting with members of the Senate and Congressional Western Caucuses at the Wynn Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada, on December 8th and 9th.

The Winter Western Policy Roundtable & Public Lands Forum will promote a dialog with attendees and official policy makers on current and upcoming 2018 Western Caucus priorities. The roundtables will discuss Administration and Congressional priorities, provide information and facts to policymakers, and promote a dialog with attendees and officials on issues related to the various topics on the agenda.

Members will be called on to provide general remarks and are encouraged to participate in the discussions at all the sessions they attend.

The two-day meeting will consist of a staff policy roundtable on Friday morning followed by a Public Lands Summit in the afternoon. On Saturday, there will be a Caucus Member-led Western Policy Roundtable in the morning, a keynote speech, and an optional field tour in the afternoon. The format is set up so that it will encourage engaging Q&A and cross table dialogue beyond the time slotted for prepared remarks.

Attending this event will be Members from the Congressional and Senate Western Caucuses, Congressional Staff, and Foundation supporters and guests. To date, we have expected our honorary Co-chairs Senator Steve Daines & Rep. Paul Gosar as well as Senator John Barrasso; Senator Dean Heller, Agriculture Committee Chairman Rep. Mike Conaway; Rep. Mark Amodei; Rep. Dan Newhouse, Rep. Kristi Noem, and others caucus members to be announced. We also will have key officials from Interior, USDA, EPA, and other agencies.
