History

In 1938, the Board of Directors of the American Industrial Hygiene Association appointed an ad hoc Committee on Certification in the Field of Industrial Hygiene. Under the chairmanship of Lewis J. Cralley, Ph.D., this Committee reported to the Board on October 10, 1957, recommending that the Association endorse and initiate the establishment of a voluntary certification program for qualified industrial hygienists.

In November 1957 the Board of Directors appointed an ad hoc Committee on Certification Standards, under the chairmanship of Henry F. Smyth, Jr., Ph.D. In February 1958 this Committee recommended to the Executive Committee of the Association that the American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists should be invited to join with the Association in initiating a certification program, and should be invited to delegate six members to join with the ad hoc Committee in planning. Early in 1958 these ACGIH delegates were named, and the resulting Joint Committee on Certification Standards with thirteen members held its first meeting in April 1958, under the chairmanship of Henry F. Smyth, Jr., Ph.D.

In March 1959 the Joint Committee recommended to the two Associations that voluntary certification should be conducted by an independent incorporated Board, that the two Associations should sponsor the Board and advance monies for its initial expenses, that the Joint Committee should be discharged, and that each Association should delegate six of its members to join in organizing the independent Board. During the summer of 1959 the memberships of the two Associations approved the principle of voluntary certification, the outline of plans and proposed qualifications for certification which had been prepared by the Joint Committee, and the advance of money for initial expenses. Each organization thereupon delegated six of its members to join in organizing the Board.

The twelve delegates held their initial meeting in Rochester, New York on April 24, 1960. A petition for a charter as a non-profit corporation under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania was approved by the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County September 12, 1960, and certified by the Prothonotary of that County September 26, 1960. The American Board of Industrial Hygiene held its first annual meeting in Pittsburgh on October 28, 1960.

All diplomates of the American Board of Industrial Hygiene become members of the American Academy of Industrial Hygiene. They remain members in good standing so long as they pay the annual dues assessed by the Board. Those who have retired from professional activity will remain members in good standing without the payment of annual dues. During 1966 the diplomates activated the American Academy of Industrial Hygiene as a voluntary professional society.

The American Board of Industrial Hygiene Incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1960 as a non-profit corporation has as a primary purpose improvement in the practice and educational standards of the profession of industrial hygiene. The American Board of Industrial Hygiene in carrying out its objectives certifies individuals as to education, experience and professional ability in the comprehensive practice of industrial hygiene as specialized aspects of the profession.

The American Board of Industrial Hygiene by legal action duly recorded in the minutes of the Corporation has indicated that successful candidates for certificates shall retain the status of Diplomate in the American Academy of Industrial Hygiene subject to compliance with requirements established by the American Board of Industrial Hygiene. Further, the American Board of Industrial Hygiene by legal action duly recorded in the minutes of the Corporation has activated the American Academy of Industrial Hygiene into a non-incorporated, voluntary, non-profit, professional society, under the sponsorship of the Corporation to retain the Purpose and Objectives outlined in the Bylaws of the Academy.

Article I. Name

The name of the organization shall be "American Academy of Industrial Hygiene"

Article II. Purpose and Objectives

Section 1. The purpose of the Academy is to provide leadership in advancing the professional field of industrial hygiene, by raising the level of competence of industrial hygienists and by securing wide recognition of the need for high quality industrial practice to insure healthful work conditions in the various occupations and industries. To meet this central purpose the Academy must work both within and outside its own professional group. Its activities shall include but not be limited to:

(a) Recruitment and training—develop and conduct programs of recruitment of graduates in the sciences and in engineering into the field; promote programs of graduate training in industrial hygiene and consult with the universities and other training programs, entrance requirements, curricula and methods of instruction to insure a firm base on which to build professional competence; encourage the development of programs of continuing education and training for practicing industrial hygienists through refresher courses and advanced seminars.

(b) Promotion of industrial hygiene—promote recognition by all individuals and organizations concerned with health maintenance in industry of the need for the highest level of competence in industrial hygiene practice; participate actively in governmental planning committees and hearings and in the parallel efforts of industrial management groups and labor organizations to improve and extend occupational health activities; collaborate with other professional groups in occupational health in pursuit of common aims and objectives.

(c) Advancement of Board Certification—work with the appropriate governmental and private agencies to secure the widest acceptance and adoption of Certification by the American Board of Industrial Hygiene as a basic qualification for employment in both public and private industrial hygiene organizations.

(d) Code of Ethics—establish guidelines for ethical conduct in the practice of industrial hygiene.

Section 2. The Academy is organized as a non-profit association. Its officers shall serve without pay and upon dissolution of the Academy, its assets shall revert to the American Board of Industrial Hygiene.

Section 3. Subject to specific approval by the American Board of Industrial Hygiene, the Academy is empowered to accept grants, gifts and monies from foundations, government, industry and individuals to implement specific objectives within the purpose of the Academy or to implement the objectives of grants made to the American Board of Industrial Hygiene.

Section 4. Executive Committee. The Executive Committee will consist of all four officers and will be given such duties as the Council desires. In general, the Executive Committee will report any of its actions to the next scheduled meeting of the Council.

Section 5. Meetings. The Council shall meet at least once a year at the call of the President. A quorum will consist of five Council Members.

Section 6. Mail Ballot. In the interval between meetings of the Council, action may be taken by ballots mailed to each Council Member by the Secretary or President, provided a majority of Council Members return their ballots marked within the time stated in the ballot.

Article V. Elections

Section 1. Nominations of officers and elective directors shall be made by a nominating committee of three members of the Academy to be proposed by the President and appointed by the Council. At least 30 days before the annual meeting the nominating committee shall select two nominees for each elective office. Section 2. Installation of officers and directors shall take place at the last business session of the annual meeting.

Article VI. Duties of Officers

Section 3. For all meetings of the Academy a quorum shall consist of 12% of the Members.

Article VIII. Dues

Dues for membership in the Academy shall be that portion of monies assessed by the American Board of Industrial Hygiene and as allocated by mutual agreement between the American Board of Industrial Hygiene and the Directors of the Academy to the Academy by the American Board of Industrial Hygiene.

Article IX. Amendments

Section 1. No amendment to the Bylaws shall change the qualifications for membership.

Section 2. No amendment to the Bylaws shall result in pecuniary gain or profit, indirect or otherwise, to a member of the Academy.

Section 3. Any proposed amendment to the Bylaws must be submitted in writing to the Council and must be signed by five Members. The Council shall also have the power to initiate amendments to the Bylaws. The Council shall consider all such amendments and shall submit them to Academy Members for action by mail ballot.
