Dear Bill:

Anything new on the polyvinyl chloride scene? As I understand it you had previously talked about both French and Rumanian papers. I presume the one you sent me in October was all there was to it, inasmuch as it was a Rumanian paper translated into French.

Was there going to be a publication of your data? Also, did you check with your manufacturing people to see if they were interested in our system referred to in my letter of October 18?

Sincerely,

R. Emmet Kelly, M. D.
Medical Director
