Description:

Hello everyone, This is just a reminder about our upcoming seminar event, Research for the Real World- What Works in Reentry. This seminar will focus on the role and importance of institutional and community corrections and rehabilitative and reentry services in crime prevention and public safety efforts. The seminar will support NIJ and the field in furthering the corrections and reentry research agenda, and advancing the knowledge of the Federal Interagency Council on Crime Prevention and Improving Reentry. The panel will be moderated by NIJ Director David Muhlhausen and will include panelists Chief Terri McDonald (Chief Probation Officer, Los Angeles County Probation Department), Grant Duwe, Ph.D. (Director of Research and Evaluation, Minnesota Department of Corrections), John Wetzel (Secretary of Corrections, Pennsylvania Department of Corrections) and Alix McLearn, Ph.D., Acting Assistant Director, Reentry Services Division, Federal Bureau of Prisons. You can learn more about the event and read speaker bios here. The meeting will take place on Monday, October 29th from 10-11:30 AM. It will be held at OJP, located at 810 7th Street NW in our third floor Main Conference room. Please click here to sign up to view via WebEx. Feel free to contact me at Rhea.Walker@usdoj.gov if you have any questions. We look forward to seeing you all there!
