Brooke,

The Service was limited in working on operations related to health and safety during the shutdown period. I can look into the status of Skookumchuck and get back to you.

Aurelia,

Would you be willing to have a call next week to discuss Skookumchuck? Now that the EIS comment period has closed (January 14), timeline has become critical.

More generally, do you know if there is anyone at USFWS right now that is focused on processing section 7 consultations, particularly those on critical timelines?

Thanks in advance for any information - have a good weekend,

Brooke
