

The floorboards are sanded, finished with a baked in penetrating seal and waxed. All the homeowner has to do is nail the boards down.

Unfinished flooring is available in both plank and parquet styles in oak. The parquet runs slightly higher than plank, about 60 cents a square foot.

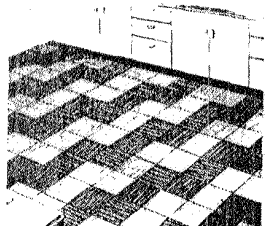

This flooring can be ordered through your local lumber yard. For the name of the manufacturer of this flooring call The Examiner, Sutter 1-2424. Extension 272, today through Friday between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. or write Modern Living, The Examiner, Third and Market Streets, San Francisco.

DUCO ENAMEL IS ODORLESS!*
... and it stays like new for years

In sparkling Gloss and velvety Semi-Gloss, DUCO is ideal for walls, woodwork and furniture in every room! Fine for kitchens, baths or any area that gets repeated wear and washings. The Gloss is ideal, too, for porch or garden furniture. And DUCO is "One-Coat Magic"! See how easily it goes on... how quickly it transforms old surfaces, usually in just one coat! No more annoying smells while painting—now that DUCO is odorless during application! (*A faint resin odor may be noticed in the final drying stage.)

You'll get like-new beauty that lasts for years, too, because DUCO resists hard knocks, grease, dirt, moisture, heat and cold. White stays white... colors stay
