Received subject to the classifications and tariff in effect on the date of the receipt by the carrier of the goods by air mail on 11/11/64.

At Green Island, N.Y., 7/14 1972 From The Bendix Corporation Flight to Atlanta, Ga.

the property described below, in apparent good order, except as noted hereunder, and consist of (a) certain of the contents of certain of the motor carrier's cargo, as indicated below, which said carrier (the word carrier being understood throughout this contract as meaning a person or persons who are licensed under the laws of the United States to transport property under the contract) agrees to carry to its usual place of delivery at said destination, if said property is otherwise suitable for carriage by motor carrier, and (b) the motor carrier's cargo, if it is mutually agreed, as to each carrier of either any of said property over all of the portions of said route of carriage which are subject to any time interest in all or any of said property, that even service to be performed hereunder shall be subject to a time interest in the motor carrier's cargo. Straight Bill of Lading set forth (1) in Uniform Freight Classification in effect on the date hereof, if the property is a motor carrier shipment, (2) in the appropriate motor carrier classification or tariff if this is a motor carrier shipment.

Shipper hereby certifies that he is familiar with all the terms and conditions of the said bill of lading, including those relating to the liability of the carrier in the event of loss or damage to the goods, and that he agrees to accept the said bill of lading as evidence of receipt of the goods by the carrier, and that he agrees to indemnify the carrier against all claims and damages which may be made against the carrier in connection with the transportation of the goods, and that he agrees to hold the carrier harmless from all such claims and damages.
