

The dances are a part of the city's recreational program. A five-piece orchestra furnishes music each Wednesday evening. Admission to Palo Alto residents is 10 cents, plus tax.

County fair attendance totals nearly 100,000

Swelling the total attendance of the six-day Santa Clara County Fair to nearly 100,000, a crowd of 22,723 persons visited the fairgrounds Sunday as the 1941 celebration came to a close.

A large percentage of the crowd was made up of local residents, visiting during Palo Alto's day at the fair.

Miss Dolores Sutton of the Palo Alto Junior Museum, with Mrs. Isabel McCracken of the museum's house committee, attended a conference of Western Museums Saturday at the San Francisco Academy of Sciences. This is the second year such a conference has been held, the group having met last year at Santa Barbara.

Following the conference, the Palo Altans witnessed a Science Fair at the Junior Recreation Museum in San Francisco.

CHARGE DISMISSED

A drunk driving charge against Henry Harala of 2639 Louis road was dismissed by San Mateo Justice of the Peace Arthur H. Stetson last Saturday.
