Sessions' Ban On Third-Party Monetary Deals Could 'Cripple' SEPs, EIP Says

Attorney General Jeff Sessions' new policy barring monetary payments to third parties as part of civil settlements could "cripple" supplemental environmental projects (SEPs) that have been part of such deals for 40 years, including pacts similar to the recent Volkswagen settlement that promotes zero-emission vehicles (ZEV), environmentalists say.

The latest update from InsideEPA/climate – from the editors of InsideEPA.com, delivering daily news, analysis and perspective on the renewed debate over climate change policies.
