Re: A dec'd) v. Kaiser Shipyard
#3, et al.
WCAB Case No: OAK 141300

Dear Ms. Del Vecchio:

Enclosed herewith, please find correspondence directed to Tony Colangelo at Sherwin-Williams advising him of the fact that Hartford has decided not to pursue its right to contribution at this point in time. As mentioned in our letter to Mr. Colangelo, Hartford has until November of 1989 to file a formal Petition for Contribution. Obviously, they realized it would be an uphill battle with four defendants strenuously objecting to any asbestos exposure plus arguing about the respective periods of liability.

If you have any questions concerning this matter and our recommendation for closure, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

This will now conclude our handling of this file on your behalf; and, we would again like to thank you for having referred this matter to our office. Our final statement for services rendered is being prepared, and will be forwarded shortly.
