British Soldier Slain by Sniper in Irish Ambush

BELFAST (UPI) — A sniper lying from an abandoned house shot and killed a British soldier on patrol with a single bullet in the head in a lower west of Belfast, the army said today.

Police, fearing from Republican Army (IRA) reprisals for the death in jail of a hunger striker today questioned 18 suspected IRA sympathizers in County Armagh Tuesday and today in a massive nationwide crackdown.

The IRA has vowed to avenge the death of Michael Gaughan who died Monday in a seventh hunger strike.

British Army officials said the soldier killed on patrol was shot once in the head shortly before midnight in the Unionist Tennent town of Dungiven 28 miles west of Belfast and died early today. Other troops returned the fire but the sniper escaped after the ambush.

Gaughan, a 26-year-old alleged IRA officer died Monday of pneumonia at Parkhurst prison on the Isle of Wight, where he was serving a seven-year sentence for bank robbery.

He had refused to eat since March 21 to back his demand that he be recognized as a political prisoner and transferred to a jail in Northern Ireland.

More than 7,000 demonstrators some shouting [illegible] marched through a Roman Catholic section of Belfast, Tuesday night to mourn Gaughan and support five other Irish hunger strikers in British jails.

The soldier slain at Dungiven was the latest victim in the Irish guerrilla war since the army moved into Northern Ireland to keep between warring majority Protestants and militant Roman Catholics the prior said.

The killing put the overall death toll in nearly five years of st...ife in Northern Ireland at 1,322.

Court To Allow Company's Lake Superior Pollution

By TOM [illegible]
ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — While conceding it is a [illegible] environmental nuisance, a three-judge federal appeals court will allow [illegible] to continue dumping taconite wastes into Lake Superior with the condition he submit [illegible] where there have been found to cause [illegible].

The panel ruled Tuesday that the nuisance [illegible] there was not sufficient evidence [illegible] shown were to support a [illegible]. The panel ordered Reserve to [illegible] hearings [illegible] within 25 days a plan to [illegible] pollution [illegible] processing 3,000 [illegible] tons of taconite [illegible] a day.

[illegible] found [illegible] with the states of Minnesota, Michigan and Wisconsin and various environmental groups that Reserve was causing an intolerable health hazard to residents of the [illegible] shore of Lake Superior.

In another court action [illegible] days of hearings, Dr. Anton's regional environmental [illegible] Professor instructed during the two days showed that [illegible] ammonium [illegible] fibers entered [illegible] air and had been found in the [illegible] water of Duluth.
