Re: Netzley vs. McCrory

Dear Dr. Kehoe:

I want to thank you again for your much appreciated assistance in the above matter. I am disappointed that my client did not see fit to let the case go to a final determination by the jury, but when the price tag suddenly dropped from $750,000.00 to $7,500.00 which was some thousand dollars less than the proven medical expenses it decided to be generous rather than incur the risk that is attendant in any jury situation. I am still old-fashioned enough to feel that when a claimant is entitled to nothing, that's what she ought to receive, but then I don't have to pay the judgments when I guess wrong!

Your assistance in preparation for the trial and your presence as a potential witness were important factors in achieving what my client feels was a most satisfactory result. Please send me your bill for services, and I shall see to it that it is paid promptly.

Yours truly,

BIESER, GREER & LANDIS
