Dear Bob:

In preparing my program for the sessions of the above captioned Section of the A. M. E. for the annual convention next June I am considering two subjects about which I would like your advice.

1. The Present Status of Bal in Treating Metal Poisoning.

2. The Present Status of Research in Industrial Medicine.

Now then, would you be willing to read a paper on either of these subjects, or, if you feel disinclined, whom would you suggest?

It was nice to visit with you at the Rams conclave, and I hope to see you in Chicago when the Council meets.

Sincerely,

Red
