Dear Dr. Greenburg:

Dr. Winslow suggests that you be invited to attend the meetings of our Administration and Executive Committees Monday afternoon, March 14, 2 p.m., and Tuesday, March 15. We shall be very happy to have you present. The meeting on Tuesday will be of our Executive Committee.

You will not be surprised to hear that the various foundry associations and others are having a meeting of protest in Chicago, tomorrow Tuesday noon and afternoon, and probably three or four representatives of the commercial interests will attend the meetings Monday and Tuesday.

I am starting on my trip Wednesday morning, to be present at the Annual Regional Conference at Allentown, Pennsylvania, on Thursday, Washington Friday, and then I will go up to New York. Mr. Bergquist may arrive as early as Sunday. We will, of course, be at the Pennsylvania Hotel where the meetings will be held.

Sincerely yours,

W. H. Cameron
Managing Director
