NATIONAL SAFETY COUNCIL
1913 Silver Jubilee 1938
20 NORTH WACKER DRIVE ★ ★ ★ ★ CHICAGO

Dr. C.E.A. Winslow
Yale University
New Haven, Conn.

June

1938

Dear Dr. Winslow:

You will be interested in Dr. Armstrong's letter of May 31 and my reply.

I long ago discovered that Dr. Dublin, Dr. Armstrong, the late Lee Frankel, and others, in the Metropolitan were a conceited and complacent lot of people.

Years ago I took lunch with the now deceased President, Haley Fiske, to discuss public safety, and found that his knowledge, as well as that of Lee Frankel, on this particular subject, was about equal to what might be expected from the newsboy or boot-black on the street corners.

But you can see how carefully the National Safety Council has to move in these controversial matters.

Sincerely yours,

W.H. Cameron
Managing Director
