ANSWERING LETTER OF

Although our consigned stock agreement with Orgill Brothers is supposed to date back to June 4th, 1932 entries were not made on our books until August 31st, naturally this would remain open on our August 20th past due statement. However, upon receipt of your letter I inquired of the young lady making the report if she had shown $12,500.00 as a carrying account on the September 20th statement. This she had done but in error.

The Accounts Receivable was credited with the amount of the inventory taken on June 4th and has only been charged with the actual differences of sales since that time. There was an understanding that all goods sold from June 4th to August 31st would fall due in October.

The entry is removed from Accounts Receivable by a charge to Return Goods and a credit to Orgill Brothers. The inventory did not amount to $12,500.00 but approximately $10,000.00.

Yours very truly,

Assistant Treasurer.

H. D. Watts Orgill Bros. Consignment Account

We have just finished checking the inventory of what is apparently the consigned stock for the Orgill Bros. Co. in Tennessee in the amount of $9,045.84. In checking up the July General Ledger Abstract we do not find this account listed as being carried on the General Ledger in memorandum form. Referring to your August 20th Past Due for Chicago, sheet No. 8, is a notation that the Orgill Bros. are allowed a $12,500 carrying account, which would indicate that this account is still in your accounts receivable.

Will you please have this carefully checked and advise us the exact status of the account, because it is incorrect to include the merchandise in your merchandise inventory if the account has not been taken out of sales by credit memorandum and returned goods tally.

Comptroller.

SUBJECT General Ledger Abstract
August 31, 1932

We are enclosing another copy of the detail of bills receivable, special loans, etc., for the month of August. These were mailed to you at the same time that we sent the Abstract and we believe that an investigation of your mailing desk might prove to an advantage.

Of late it seems that we duplicate practically every report that is sent to Cleveland and while in most instances it is not a hardship on us, owing to the fact that we usually have extra copies, yet it does delay you people and also requires additional postage.

We do not know just what causes your difficulties but as stated above believe it would be worth while investigating.
