9th March, 1945.

Dear Mr.Harrison.

I am extremely sorry to learn from your letter of 7th March of the death of three native labourer at Abadan, as a result of cleaning storage tanks which he contained leaded spirit.

It would seem from what you say that the regulations governing the cleaning of storage tanks that have contained leaded spirit were not, in this instance, followed, and this is particularly distressing in view of the emphasis that has been laid, during the past twelve months, on this particular subject.

The steps which Abadan have taken to prevent a recurrence of this trouble should ensure that for the future the regulations are carefully followed, thereby avoiding further accidents from this cause.

Yours sincerely,

(Signed) T.R.A. BEVAN.
