Good and Bad.

There are good and bad in paints as in everything. But unless you know from experience or are thoroughly acquainted with the paint industry it is hard for you to tell the good paint from the bad.

OCCEIDENTAL COLLEGE NOTES.

Invitations have been issued for a reception to be given May 8 by the sophomore class for the seniors.

Mrs. Cleland gave an informal dinner in honor of the birthday of her nephew, Will Bacon. Those present were Misses Edith Powell, Charlotte Paine, Mae McClung, Estelle McClung, Currey, Harris, D. Lewis and E. Lewis and Mrs. Kinstown; Messrs. Will Bacon, John Berger, J. McClung, R. Thompson, A. Huell, R. King, H. Cleland, H. Cleland, R. F. Archibald, P. Goodell, E. Cummings.

Yesterday afternoon the department of music held its second recital in the college chapel. A pleasing programme was rendered.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Yesterday William E. Cox, room 265 Henne Block Keniston & Root, No. 265 South Main street, and William McLean, Nos. 131-131 Center place, were elected members of the chamber.

The chamber will be open tonight, tomorrow and Saturday nights, and the Corcoran collection will be open the balance of the week.

Hon. John Barrett has written the chamber stating that he anticipates the pleasure of appearing before it on his return from the Philippines and Australia, and giving an account of his trip, and the interest that will be taken by the foreign countries in the coming expedition.

AT NEW YORK HOTELS.
