W. B. Papageorge - B2SK

October 14, 1975

H. S. Bergen
R. E. Keller
D. Wood

J. P. Mieure - T2B

Confirming our telephone conversation, will you please proceed with the necessary studies which you believe appropriate to help establish the biodegradation rates of PCB homologs, specifically those present in Aroclors 1016, 1242 and 1254.

As you know, some of our customers have expressed considerable interest in obtaining this type of information and we may find this data useful for the pending November PCB hearings.

W. B. Papageorge

/pd

571