For what it's worth, here's some reporters worth looping in for the event:

Amy Harder — Axios's energy columnist

Ben Geman — Axios's daily energy newsletter

Alex Guillen, Andrew Restuccia, and Politico's other energy/environmental reporters (<http://www.politico.com/energy-and-environment>)

Esther Whieldon — Politico Pro's energy reporter

Anthony Adranga — Politico's morning energy newsletter

Greg Ip, Wall Street Journal

Louise Radnofsky, Wall Street Journal

Lawrence Hurley, Reuters

Brady Dennis, Washington Post

Also reporters at Energy & Environment News, a major trade press
(<https://www.eenews.net>)

I could think of folks at the political magazines too.
