Hi Scott Congrats on your new role so glad to see you back in government (or I should say federal gov!). I'd love to find time catch up and introduce you to my colleagues, Angie Graziano, whom you may remember from her long career at DOI, including serving as COO of the DOI Business Center and other similar roles, and is now leading our shared services business, and Michael Lumb, who leads our DOI business. We'd welcome a short discussion to hear first-hand your priorities, and share our insight on a few key topics that may be helpful, including enterprise scale IT modernization of service delivery systems like FBMS, FPPS and MRMSS, and related issues on business process design and standardization. We can also share some of the relevant work we've been doing to foster innovation and accelerate cloud migration. Please let me know if you'd have time in the next few weeks we'll be glad to work around your schedule. Look forward to seeing you Kathy

Hi Scott – Hope you had a good summer. Thought I'd check in and see if you have time to get together. Perhaps first week of October, when you have breathed a sigh of relief after the close of the FY? Best - Kathy
