FILE NAME: Saranac 7th Symposium (SSY)

DATE: 0000

DOC#: SSY001

DOCUMENT DESCRIPTION: Barry Castleman Notes

(3pp) BC note 755

59-60 Greenberg on Talc

72 M-W on "talc" exp. causing asbestosis from talc

89-111 Handy on Be missing

114 Hatch silicotic retained 0.1% of what they inhaled in lungs (dust)

87 Vorwald's table on fibrosis skips cancer as topic to be covered Wednesday

120-133 Handy on cortisone treatment and sudden post-exposure toxicity of Be in people undergoing great physical stress (Conrad)

Pages missing from Sahyoun's copy (755):

1-28
90-110
554-564

Unclear what was in initial transcript but at least parts of that appear in 22 sheets, the last of which leads to transcript pp. 29 on

Missing 559 - 564

565 ~~[illegible]~~ photos

567-577 M.W.O.R. O.D. comp.

580-584 (history) in UK

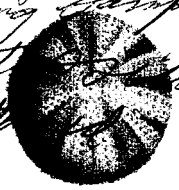

580-81 Asbestosis is listed after describing death from silicosis

588-93 Knight Chair IL Ref. Comm.

(591) describes compiling noting OD Act is not mandatory for employers to comment the Act.

597- Mary Dorlon State gov official NY discusses industry lobbying in Depression to limit comp costs insurance risk to state in 1934/1935 exaggerated (603) "Fantastic" and "harassing" restrictions remain. (606) Urges that mere wage loss is not a measure of disability in some cases of Stress

449 Badger got exemption by asking samples from docs doing attributable Ca on workers one disintegrated

384-85 Cartier presented MPP report and % of fiber counts at the mines

386 6 cases of primary ca and 4 in group exposed (?)

388 I cannot answer why there is less cases of Ca with asbestosis group

405-411 Langs defends A (LCa) and A industry (hygienic)
- suggests Rhodesian A used in UK worse than Canadian A
- makes similar remarks on [illegible] of carcinogen (what particular chrome substance responsible)

Mr. Barry Castleman