Dr. G. P. Rouse, Jr.,
2031 Locust Street,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Dear Dr. Rouse:

I find somewhat to my embarrassment that I have a copy of our report of the analyses of blood [REDACTED], as supplied to us by Dr. Reinhardt. I hasten to supply you with this report. You [REDACTED] of the samples was badly contaminated, but the results that were in essential agreement. It [REDACTED] had had very little lead absorption in [REDACTED] before the collection of these samples. I was [REDACTED] that we did not receive the sample of urine, [REDACTED] that the developments in this case have been such that lead poisoning need not be considered in [REDACTED]

At your convenience, no doubt, you will be re-supply containers supplied for the collection of other [REDACTED] for any reason you wish to hold them for use [REDACTED] do not hesitate to do so, but we should prefer [REDACTED] out of the Laboratory for any prolonged period [REDACTED] for them is even greater than we can supply.

Cordially,

Robert A.
