Gov. Rick Scott Hosts Puerto Rico Relief Efforts Roundtable

ORLANDO, Fla. – Today, Governor Rick Scott hosted a roundtable at the Multi-Agency Resource Center in Orlando with Florida education leaders, community officials and volunteer organizations to discuss the ongoing relief efforts for those who have been displaced by Hurricane Maria. Yesterday, Governor Scott sent a letter to the United States Senate Committee on Appropriations urging the Senate to act immediately and pass a significant Hurricane Irma and Maria disaster relief package. To view the letter click HERE. Last month, Governor Scott urged Congress to pass a disaster relief funding package which includes critical funding to help Florida school districts educate displaced students from Puerto Rico.
