

Copies sent to: American Paint Journal(New York & Missouri), N. Y. Paint, Varnish & Lacquer Assoc., Paint & Varnish Production, Paint & Wallpaper Logic, Retail Paint & Wallpaper Distributors of America, Inc., Paint Industry, Paint, Oil & Chemical Review, Paint Progress and Messrs. Southworth & Terrilliger
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW YORK, JANUARY 31, 1962 - John P. Power, 32, paint sales representative for the Atlantic Branch of National Lead Company, died January 26, 1962 at St. John's Hospital, Elmhurst, New York, after a two-week illness.

A resident of Flushing, New York, Mr. Power was educated at Adelphi College. After service with the U. S. Marine Corps he joined National Lead Company in 1953 as a sales trainee and was shortly thereafter assigned a territory on Long Island, New York. In 1961 he was transferred to a territory in southern New Jersey. He was a member of New York Paint Travellers Association.

Mr. Power is survived by his parents, two sisters and two brothers. His father, Pierce H. Power, is vice-president of Paragon Paint and Varnish Corporation, Long Island City, New York.