Dear Doctor Garfunkel:

Thanks for your letter of February 21. I am pleased, rather than irked by your request to look at this matter a second time.

I should explain, perhaps, the fact that I have been in San Francisco since February 9 and that I left Cincinnati for New Orleans (to a meeting of the American Academy of Occupational Medicine), and proceeded thence to San Francisco. Here, I do not have access to the articles represented as references in the author's manuscript. My being in San Francisco will account for the delay in dealing with this manuscript.

I should like you to know that I do not object at all to Dr. Rosen's attitude toward my initial review. On the contrary, I am pleased to find him reacting as he has.

Since Dr. Rosen wrote a letter to Dr. Nelson, a copy of which was sent to me, I have written to him also, for he is well and very pleasantly known to me. I enclose a copy of my letter to him, for such use as it may be to you.

Cordially yours,

Robert A. Kehoe, M.D.
Professor Emeritus of Occupational Medicine
