DOCUMENT DESCRIPTION: Letter from Barry Castleman

February 19, 1975

Dear Irving,

I noted that you cited General Foods for selling talc-polished rice for export only. They phoned today in response to my note, to say they only sell minute-rice, which does not have talc. Can you fill me in on what you know about companies following this practice, and how you know, etc.?

Looking forward to hearing from you on the salt, too-

Best wishes,

Barry Castleman
