RESPONSES TO REQUESTS FOR DISCLOSURE

(a) Correct Names of the Parties to the Lawsuit:

- (1) Plaintiff, Henry Mottu and/or plaintiffs with claims against Atlantic Richfield Company (Individually and as Successor-in-Interest to Sinclair Oil Corporation)
- (2) Atlantic Richfield Company ("ARCO") (Individually and As Successor In Interest to Sinclair Oil Corporation)
- (3) Defendant ARCO is unable to state the correct names of other plaintiffs and/or Defendants to this lawsuit, but hereby incorporates each of these parties' responses in its response and reserves the right to supplement this information to the extent such information is available.

(b) Name, address, and telephone number of any potential parties:

ARCO is unaware at this time of any potential parties that have not already been named in this action, but will supplement to the extent such information becomes available.

(c) Legal theories and, in general, factual bases of the responding party's claims or defenses (the responding party need not marshal all evidence that may be offered at trial):

ARCO hereby incorporates by reference its Original Answer, subject to Motion to Transfer Venue and its Motion to Transfer Venue. Specific defenses asserted and relied upon by ARCO include: improper joinder of plaintiffs (violations of due process of the United States and Texas Constitutions), improper venue, statute of limitations, laches, Texas Worker's Compensation Statute bars, failure to mitigate, no duty, no breach of duty, no proximate cause, assumption of the risk, comparative negligence and/or negligence per se of the contractor, unknown causes, unavoidable accident, new, independent and intervening cause, third party liability, sole proximate cause, unconstitutionality of punitive/exemplary damages awards under the Texas and United States Constitutions, Chapter 41 Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code regarding limitations on punitive damages, contribution and/or indemnity, comparative fault/negligence, offset, and no joint and several liability.

(d) Amount and any method of calculating economic damages:

At this time, premises defendant, ARCO has not asserted any counterclaims or cross claims in this action and is not seeking economic damages. However, ARCO has asserted contribution and/or indemnity and intends to pursue any amounts as contribution and/or indemnity which ARCO may be found liable to plaintiff, in whole or in part, as a result of the negligence or fault of a third party or other defendant. Defendant will also be seeking an offset of any amounts alleged by the plaintiff for plaintiff's comparative negligence or fault.

(e) Name, address, and telephone number of persons having knowledge of relevant facts, and a brief statement of each identified person's connection with the case:

From 1945 until 1966, Sinclair, Atlantic, and Richfield each employed doctors and medical personnel at various facilities. The precise duties of these people depended on the facility at which they worked. The remaining records do not list the names and addresses of each of these individuals, some of whom were independent contractors in private practice. The following names and addresses are based on current information of individuals at the corporate level of Sinclair, Atlantic, Richfield and ARCO, as plaintiff Mottu has failed to identify a specific premises owned by ARCO or an ARCO predecessor where he worked. This information may be supplemented as further information is developed. The information available at this time is divided into the following sections:

- A) Individuals with knowledge of relevant facts concerning corporate medical department;
- B) Individuals with knowledge of relevant facts concerning respiratory protection at the corporate level;
- C) Individuals with knowledge of relevant facts at the corporate level, generally;
