

1 Q And, Doctor, you showed the jury what was
2 called an ILO film for comparison.

3 Would you tell the jury what ILO stands
4 for?

5 A International Labor Office.

6 Q Office or organization?

7 A I think initially it was office and then
8 changed to organization.

9 Q All right. And they sponsor a test for 10 radiologists and pulmonologists to take what is called
11 a B-reader test, don't they?

12 A Actually they don't.

13 Q Is it the American College of Radiologists
14 in conjunction with NIOSH and the ILO?

15 A Actually it is NIOSH, and actually the test
16 is for anybody. You don't have to be a physician to 17 take it.

18 Q I can even take it?

19 A You could.

20 Q It would be absolutely stupid for me to take
21 it, but I could, right, since I have no experience in
