Supporting outstanding young journalists since 2014

Since 2014, The Steamboat Institute has been proud to provide financial support to encourage the work of outstanding young journalists who share and promote our principles and the principles of the late Tony Blankley.

We are honored to officially welcome the Washington Examiner's Philip Wegmann as our 2018-19 Tony Blankley Chair for Public Policy and American Exceptionalism. His inspiring acceptance speech - given at our annual Freedom Conference dinner in August (where Interior Secretary Ryan Zinke gave the keynote address) - was greeted with a standing ovation! You can watch it here.
