

G-Pow

Background Information
William H. Brown

William H. Brown, employed by B. F. Goodrich Chemical Company on July 7, 1945 as a Chemical Helper in Bldg. 4, Dept. 5760, Plant 2 in the caustic chlorine process, died on March 9, 1973.

Brown's death certificate listed as the cause of death "Adena carcinoma of the gall bladder with liver metastasis" .

No autopsy was performed. He is buried in Garrettsville Cemetery, Meade County, Ky. He worked as a Chemical Helper until June 9, 1946 when he was promoted to Chemical Operator 2nd Class in the same department. On June 13, 1948 Brown was promoted to Chemical Operator 1st Class in Bldg. 21, Dept. 5762-M, Plants 1 and 2 on the refrigeration process. He was promoted to Refrigeration Operator, a position he held until he became ill, on July 1, 1953 in Bldg. 115-21, Dept. 67/M, Plants 1 and 2.

Brown was born on April 20, 1912. He died at Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital after a six-month illness. His widow is the former Susie Nell Padgett. His last known address was 6610 Fincastle Road, Valley Station, Ky.

Certification of death was filled out by Dr. Ben A. Reid at the hospital address, 4500 Churchman, Louisville, Ky. 40215.

W. T. Duke
W. T. Duke
1-25-74

22659001

BFG22274