Edith Borman of the Tri Delts tells betrothal to army flier

On the third finger of her left hand Edith Marguerite Borman is wearing a large diamond, a ring just presented her by Lieut. Everett D. Derenthal of the United States Army Air Corps at Mather Field.

Miss Borman is attending Stanford, where she belongs to the class of '43 and Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. Previously she was a student at Pomona College. She is the only child of Mrs. Marjorie M. Borman of Hillsborough and Thomas L. Borman of Chicago.

Her fiance is the only son of Mrs. Ella Derenthal of Austin, Minn., and the late Anton Derenthal. He was a Phi Kappa Psi fraternity man at the University of Minnesota.

Among the parties planned for the coed are a Halloween dinner October 31, to be given by Phyllis Kneass of San Mateo.

Mrs. Margaret Wright is guest of the Treats

Visiting for an indefinite time with Mrs. Charles P. Treat and her daughter, Miss Katherine Treat, of Palo Alto avenue is Mrs. Margaret S. Wright.

Mrs. Wright formerly lived on Channing avenue here. Her son, Howard T. Wright, has been promoted to the rank of major and, having recovered from injuries incurred in an air crash last June, is now on duty overseas. Her daughter, Dr. Virginia L. Wright, has gone into private practice and is one of two doctors in the Union Pacific Hospital at Portola.
