Leslie,

The Administrator was referring to a verbal directive. Thank you for the hospitality earlier this week. I also received your note about the RMP from Patrick Davis.

Regards,

Samantha

Subject: a favor to ask of you

Hi Samantha,

I hope my email finds well. It was a pleasure to meet you earlier this week. As I am sure Anna has told you, both ACC staff and our member company reps really appreciated you taking the time to speak with us on Tuesday.

I am following up on your kind offer to feel free to contact you to ask if you might have and could share a copy of a recent directive signed by Administrator Pruitt regarding the Agency's engagement in "sue and settle" matters? (There was story in the trade press today about it.) I looked for it on EPA's website but could not find it. I am putting together a webinar for our members on citizen suits and this directive would be a useful piece of information to share. Thanks.

Regards,

Leslie
