May need your help to get her in building if we can't get her pinned via WH. Will wait to hear from them

11:44 PM

Justin Harding

I believe they have pinned her. She is the only one on our team that has been pinned none of the rest of us got a pin from the White House. Frustrating!

Me

Me

Did you hear them discussing her...is that how you thought she had been pinned? I haven't heard back from WH on it yet

11:51 PM

Justin Harding

Yes, that is what I was told. She has been given a pin and access to the governor and the president to help photograph the event.
