Title of the Event (please note if the event is a weekly, monthly, annual, etc.):	Steamboat Institute's 11 th Annual Freedom Conference & Film Festival
Date of Event (please note if the date is flexible):	August 23-24, 2019
Event Location (venue, address, city and state):	Steamboat Grand Resort, Steamboat Springs, Colorado
Point(s) of Contact (Name, Email, Phone):	Jennifer Schubert-Akin, CEO jsa@steamboatinstitute.org 970-846-6013
Briefly describe the event in detail including the purpose and desired role of the Secretary:	Steamboat Institute's Annual Freedom Conference & Film Festival attracts our nation's leaders in government, military, education, media, journalism, entertainment, and think tanks to the Rocky Mountain resort setting of Steamboat Springs, Colorado. Steamboat Institute is a 501(c)(3) non-partisan educational organization, promoting the principles of America's founders and inspiring active involvement in the defense of liberty. We attract a capacity audience of nearly 350 people from across the U.S., comprised of citizens who are deeply interested in maintaining individual liberty and reducing the size and scope of the federal government. Our audience will be especially interested to hear more about the BLM's relocation to Grand Junction, which is certainly great news on the Western Slope! We are inviting Secretary Bernhardt to give a major plenary address on either Friday morning, August 23 rd , or Saturday morning/early afternoon, August 24 th .
Please describe any specific request of the Secretary at the event (i.e. deliver keynote remarks, attend an event, meet with attendees etc.):	We are inviting Secretary Bernhardt to give a major plenary address on either Friday morning, August 23 rd , or Saturday morning/early afternoon, August 24 th . His remarks will take place in the ¹Per the Administration Ethics Pledge, the Secretary agreed that he will not for a period of two years from the date of his appointment participate in any particular matter involving specific parties in which a former employer or client of his is or represents a party, if he served that former employer or client during the two years prior to his appointment, absent a waiver under Section 3 of Executive Order No. 13770. This includes recusal from any meeting or other communication with such a former employer or client unless (1) there are five or more different stakeholders present and (2) no particular matters involving specific parties are discussed.

	ballroom of the Steamboat Grand and could be 30-45 minutes, with an additional 15-20 minutes for audience Q&A. Alternatively, we could do a “fireside chat” format with one of our Tony Blankley Fellows interviewing the Secretary. We anticipate that C-Span will televise portions of our conference again this year. We also have media interest from Fox News and CBS4 in Denver.
Is the event a fundraiser? If yes, please explain who it is benefiting (i.e. specific charity, a political candidate, etc.):	No, this is not a fundraiser. We sell tickets to the general public to attend our conference.
Event Host and Sponsor
Who is the event host ? (Please identify and provide background on the Event host as well as any other organization involved in the Event.)	Steamboat Institute is the sole host of the Annual Freedom Conference & Film Festival.
Is the event host a registered lobbyist or lobbying organization, and/or registered under the Foreign Agents Registration Act? (If yes, please identify.)	No, the event host is not a registered lobbyist or lobbying organization.
Is the event host a partisan political candidate, a representative of a political party or a registered political action committee (PAC)? (If yes, please identify.)	No, the event host is none of these.
Is the event host a 501(c)(3) organization or a media organization? (If yes, please identify.)	Yes, Steamboat Institute (event host) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, non-partisan educational organization.
Is the event host seeking or currently have any business interests with the Department such as permits, contracts, litigation, grants, etc.? (If yes, please describe.)	No.
Who are the sponsors of the event? Please identify and provide background information on the individual and/or entity.	Major sponsors of the event are individual donors to Steamboat Institute: James & Lorraine Mann and Virginia & Richard Srednicki. All are residents of Steamboat Springs, Colorado.
Are any event sponsors seeking or do they currently have any business interests with the Department such as permits, contracts, litigation, grants, etc.? (If yes, please describe.)	No, the major sponsors listed above do not have any business interests with the Department.
With which Bureau or Agency does your agenda most align? Please list all, if more than one.	Our agenda would probably most closely align with the Bureau of Land Management and the National Park Service, since our conference is held in Colorado, where BLM decisions can have a major impact on the citizens. There is particular interest in the recent announcement that the BLM headquarters will be moving to Grand Junction, Colorado. There is also great interest in our national parks and national monuments because of our location in the Rocky Mountain region.

Audience
Approximately how many people are expected to attend the event?	Approximately 350 people from across America (60% from Colorado, 40% from out of state).
Please describe the target audience of the event (elected officials, local community leaders, academics, industry representatives, public sector representatives, etc.).	Our target audience is local community/business leaders, students/young professionals, college and university leaders, and retired professionals seeking to make a difference in their communities.
Will the attendees at the event include persons with a diversity of views or interests, or representatives from throughout an industry or profession, or the range of persons interested in a matter? (If yes, please describe.)	Steamboat Institute's audience is more conservative/libertarian leaning, but we welcome people of all ideologies to hear issues discussed in a reasoned and respectful manner. We seek to educate and to persuade, using civilized discourse.
Is the event open to the public? If not, please describe who is invited.	Yes, our event is open to the public. We advertise in local newspapers, as well as promote on social media, through digital advertising, and via email announcements to our nationwide list.
Who are other VIPs or speakers confirmed and in what role?	Other confirmed speakers include NASA Administrator Jim Bridenstine, Alan Dershowitz, Steve Moore, Jillian Melchior (editorial page writer for The Wall Street Journal), Kevin Sorbo (film producer and actor), Sara Carter (investigative reporter and Fox News contributor), Asra Nomani (co-founder of the Muslim Reform Movement), Jim DeMint, Stephon Ferguson (historical re-enactment of Dr. Martin Luther King's "I Have a Dream" speech), and many others.
Who are other VIPs or speakers invited?	For full list of confirmed speakers, please visit www.steamboatinstitute.org
Remarks
If you are requesting remarks, are there any specific issues you would like the Secretary to highlight/address in his remarks?	We would leave the remarks to the Secretary's discretion. Our audience would be interested in many issues, including BLM realignment, energy development policies, issues pertaining to national parks and national monuments, and other such issues.
What is the desired format of his remarks (will he be delivering the keynote, sharing the stage, participating in a panel or roundtable, etc.)?	The Secretary's remarks could be delivered either as a keynote address followed by audience Q&A or by interview with a moderator who screens audience Q&A on index cards OR as a "fireside chat" format with a moderator (likely one of Steamboat Institute's Tony Blankley Fellows).

#868670.3

What is the public registration/ticket fee to attend/participate in the event?	The full registration fee for the 2 ½ day Freedom Conference & Film Festival was $395 through June 30 th . The fee increased to $475 on July 1 st .
Communications
Is the event open or closed to press?	Our event is open press.
If open, are you expecting local, trade, state, or national news coverage?	We are anticipating local, state and national news coverage (Steamboat Pilot & Today, Denver Post, CBS4 Denver, Fox News, CNN, and C-Span). We also anticipate that the Grand Junction Daily Sentinel may send a reporter to cover the Secretary's remarks.
If this is an annual event, which news outlets typically cover the event?	The same outlets as listed above.
Will you be advertising or live streaming the event on any social media outlets? (If yes, please explain.)	Yes, we advertise our Freedom Conference & Film Festival on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram. We are not planning to livestream at this time, but we will post videos online after the event.
Logistics/Other*
What does the invitation include: registration/conference event fee; meals or refreshments; receptions or other entertainment; informational materials; memento or token of appreciation; and/or travel (ground or air transportation, hotel, etc.).	Steamboat Institute's invitation for Secretary Bernhardt includes the same benefits we offer every other speaker: air transportation and lodging for the Speaker and one guest, registration fee for the conference, meals and receptions at the conference, and ground transfers to/from airport and conference hotel.
Does all or part of the invitation to the Secretary extend to other Department staff such as security, advance, and/or those staff essential to the Secretary's participation in the event? (If yes, please identify.)	Yes, Steamboat Institute will take care of logistics and expenses for security, advance, and other staff essential to the Secretary's participation in our conference.
Does the invitation extend to the Secretary's spouse or other guest? If yes, will others in attendance generally be accompanied by a spouse or other guest?	Yes, the invitation includes the Secretary's spouse. Yes, many others in attendance will be accompanied by a spouse or other guest.
What is the monetary value of the invitation to the Secretary, etc.? Please identify how the costs were determined. (Please attach separate sheet if necessary.)	The total monetary value of air transportation, lodging, registration fee, meals/receptions, and ground transfers for the Secretary and one guest would equal approximately $2,800.
Please supply any other pertinent background information for the event (history of the event, prior attendance by DOI officials, draft agendas, event website, promotional/advertising materials, outreach plan, etc.):	The Steamboat Institute is a nationally recognized leader in advancing the founding principles of the U.S. Previous speakers at our programs have included then-Congressman Mike Pence, Vice President Dick Cheney, previous Interior Secretary Ryan Zinke, Vicente Fox (President of Mexico, 2000-06), Nigel Farage, Steve Forbes, Laura Ingraham, Dr. Ben Carson, Ambassador John Bolton, Victor Davis Hanson, Rep. Devin Nunes, Mary Kissel and James Taranto (The Wall Street Journal editorial board), and many others. Secretary Bernhardt spoke on an energy policy panel at our California Policy Summit in Aptos, CA, in February 2017. A draft agenda is attached. Please note that we still have some flexibility in moving speakers around to accommodate the Secretary's schedule.

#868670.4

If the Secretary is not able to attend, is a surrogate desired? If yes, anyone specific?	We strongly prefer to have Secretary Bernhardt speak. Thank you.
Any additional notes or information?	We will have nearly 30 young leaders (college students and young professionals) from around the U.S. attending our Freedom Conference on scholarships. It would be incredibly inspiring for them to meet Secretary Bernhardt and hear him speak.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The purpose of these questions is to elicit information relevant to the ethics analysis and is not a solicitation or request for anything of value by the Department or any of its employees.
