Hi Sydney,

Just checking in again to see if we can get on Administrator Pruitt's schedule for the 27th or 28th? If Mr. Pruitt's schedule does not allow, would it be possible to meet with one of his advisors, perhaps his Chief of Staff Ryan Jackson?

Thank you,
Joe

Hi Sydney,

The good folks over at EPW suggested that I reach out to you.

The CEO and board president of the National Sorghum Producers will be in town the last week of April and would greatly appreciate the opportunity to meet with Administrator Pruitt. We'd like to express our appreciation on some recent actions by EPA, specifically on WOTUS and Chlorpyrifos. In addition, we would like to discuss the Grain Sorghum Oil Biodiesel Pathway Petition, originally submitted to EPA in July, 2016 and some specific crop protection concerns.

We're hopeful that a meeting could be possible on Thursday (April 27th) or Friday (April 28th). However, they are willing to adjust their arrival times if Wednesday (26th) offers the only opportunity.

Thank you,
Joe
