Clipper Fined For Scuffling

NEW YORK — (AP) — Milan Cop, star halfback of the Oakland Clippers, and Ricardo Mungluta, a defensive player with the San Diego Toros, were suspended for 10 days and fined $100 each yesterday by president Dick Walsh of the North American Soccer League.

Walsh took the action following receipt of the referee's written report on a scuffle involving the pair in a game at Oakland May 17. Both were ejected from the match. The report indicated they created an incident "that could have erupted into a riotous condition," Walsh said.

Both players will be eligible to play again June 5.
