Dear Bob:

Thank you very much for the list you sent me. I have already asked Eckardt and he has already accepted. However, if a final confrontation between data and scientist comes about (and I surely hope it will), your list will serve as a valuable source for participants.

Until the end of June I am dividing my time between St. Louis and the East Coast. Is it possible that you will be East during June and early July? If so, please let me know. I can be reached in New Jersey at Area Code 609-494-3458. It will be pleasant to have you here for a day of sailing or what have you.

Best regards,

Theodor D. Sterling
