

1 Q Socially?

2 A Yes, sure.

3 Q You didn't work in the same building, did
4 you?

5 A No, no, but we always had a reasonably close
6 relation with Owens-Illinois because our people came
7 from there and they were friends.

8 Q Did the Owens-Illinois Company continue to
9 exchange information and share information with Owens-
10 Corning throughout the 1950s?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And if things were important to joint
13 ventures that they were involved with, Owens-Illinois
14 would share information with Owens-Corning?

15 A Yeah, well, I would say so, yes, sure.

16 Q In the 1950s, from 1953 to '58, Owens-
17 Illinois and Owens-Corning were working together with
18 regard to Kaylo and Owens-Illinois was manufacturing
19 it and Owens-Corning was selling it?

20 A Yeah, and were going to manufacture it.

21 Q During that period of time, do you know
