Bankruptcy Petition Filed by Housewife

Marie Epstein, housewife, San Francisco, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday. She owes $12,814 and has $14,800 assets. Among her principal creditors are the City of Paris, to whom she owes $2,322; Langley, Michels, $3,294, and C. Biederman, $3,000. John E. Hoham, merchant of San Jose, asked the Federal Court to declare him bankrupt. He owes $4,848, and his assets are $8,518. Five thousand dollars of the assets represent his stock in trade.

Night Playgrounds Closing Protested

Closing of the Glen Park Playground buildings at night was protested yesterday at the meeting of the commission on the ground that it is driving the boys of the neighborhood to seek evening diversion in pool halls and undesirable social centers.

Mrs. R. Andrews of the Glen Park Mothers' Club was told night activities have been discontinued owing to a budget cut of $150,000.

so horribly searish from the itching and pounding of the Arctic seas after we were forced down that we were all helpless.

"WELCOME SIGHT."

The most welcome sight of our careers was when the Richmond came alongside in response to one of our hourly signal flares. We saved practically all our instruments.

You Americans are a magnifi-this thing, the manner in which they have obeyed orders to take no undue chances, although their inclination was to keep going," was especially commended by him.

They have flown virtually around the world in less than three hundred hours actual flying time, he said, adding that with further provisions "this entire journey can be accomplished with the present planes in 13 days."
