Re: "Chemical Reactions in the Atmosphere and Their Relationships to Weather Phenomena"

You will recall the notice sent to you on January 17, 1967 reporting that a paper on the above subject will be presented on February 21, 1967 at a meeting of the Western N.Y. Section of the ACS at the Continental Inn, Kew-Forest, New York.

This notice was based on information received from the Program Chairman for the proposed meeting. However, we have subsequently learned that the meeting will be held at the Continental Inn Banquet Room, Tonawanda, New York. The Continental Inn is located at 3450 Delaware Avenue, three blocks south of Sheridan Drive. Parking is available near the hotel.

Dinner reservations for this meeting must be made not later than Monday, February 20, 1967. To make your reservation, write Mr. Daniel K. Hays, Lucidol Division, 1740 Military Road, Buffalo, New York 14210; or call Mr. Daniel K. Hays, TR 7-1740 Ext. 232, Evenings - RR 3-4474, or call Mr. Robert M. Callivan, DA 4-5000 Ext. 497, Evenings - TT 3-1265.

Very truly yours,
