Dear Mr. Pruitt,

Thank you for your letter of September 21, in the wake of our meeting in New York. As I mentioned, when I was Assistant Secretary of State for Oceans and International Environmental and Scientific Affairs, I found that there were many important transboundary environmental issues between the US and Canada on the one hand and between the US and Mexico on the other. It proved to be a rich area for environmental cooperation. I am sure that these kinds of issues persist to this day.

I wish you success in your important responsibilities.

Sincerely yours,

John D. Negroponte
Vice Chairman
