

(Drislane - Purcell)

1 A There was a study on pensions which affected me
2 directly, discontinuing a defined benefit pension program and
3 about, you know, how you had to go through it to go into it.
4 So it had to do with pensions and that kind of stuff.

5 Q Any other types of studies or service, to your
6 knowledge, that Marshall Granger and Company as auditors of
7 the Institute provided?

8 A No.

9 Q Are you familiar with any study involving any
10 actuarial data and analysis regarding users of friction
11 materials?

12 A Actuarial data concerning users of friction
13 materials?

14 Q Yes.

15 A No. I don't, no.

16 Q Were there aspects of Institute business during 17 your tenure as secretary and executive director that you were 18 not involved in?

19 A No, I don't believe so.

20 Q Do you recall receiving various reports from Mr.
21 Weaver regarding asbestos at various times through your
22 tenure as executive director?

23 A I'm sure he did send things in.
