

No further data or correspondence has been furnished to indicate whether or not my advice was followed. On March 9th 1937, however, a letter from Mr. E. R. Alden of the Claim Department of Socony-Vacuum stated that the case was dismissed by the Industrial Board, as non-occupational but due to multiple sclerosis.

RAK

KE 0011338