FILE NAME: National Safety Council (NSC)

DATE: 0000

DOC#: NSC225

DOCUMENT DESCRIPTION: Barry Castleman Notes on NSC News

NO 9 Add Ch. 10 bottom 41 e and reduce verbiage of intro (see 41e)

National Safety News, the journal

[illegible] official of the National Safety Council since 1919, [illegible] a number of articles dealing with [illegible] asbestosis in the 1930's (C.O.

Sappington, and 767, Industrial Health, 46, May, 1931; [illegible]

C.O. Sappington, Are All Dusty Hazardous? 18-20, Feb. 1932; L.U. Gardner, Inhaled Mineral Dusts, 34-36, Jan. 1933; A.S.

Johnson, No Half Way Measures in Dust Control,

17-18 and 48-51, Sept. 1935; R.B. Heat, Less

Known Facts about Occupational Diseases, 37-38

Nov. 1936; H.B. Meller, Air Contaminants that

Affect Health, 34-36, Dec. 1936; R.R. Sayers, Dusts

That Harm, 51-52 and 1858, Jan. 1938; J.M. Rooke, Solving the Dust Problem, 18-19 and 72-74, May, 1938)

← A General Motors industrial hygienist

noted that asbestos hazards were attendant

upon the grinding [illegible] of brake linings, warning

the need for properly designed local exhaust systems to remove dust (V.J. Castagna, Fume and Dust Exposure, [illegible] Feb. 1938)