We propose to furnish (material only) H. H. Robertson Company standard products as follows:

ITEM I - SECTION 7A PREFORMED ROOFING AND SIDING

22 Gauge corrugated stainless steel panels in conformance with ASTM A167, Type 304, No. 2D finish.

18, 20, and 24 Gauge corrugated Galbestos panels coated both sides with one standard Robertson color.

Stypolight TME standard weight corrugated translucent panels.

Also included are stainless steel fasteners, side and end lap sealant, neoprene closers, miscellaneous accessories, and erection drawings.

ITEM II - SECTION 7C LOUVERS

Type 3200 manually operable with spring and chain operating assembly.

Type 3140 manually operable with push bar operating assembly, including erection drawings.

PRICE: ITEMS I AND II - MATERIAL ONLY F.O.B. FACTORY WITH FREIGHT ALLOWED TO JOB SITE ----------$174,402.00.

ADD FOR TAXES.

NOTES:

1. We can start shipping material in less than 10 weeks after receipt of order and complete set of drawings and specifications for our Engineering Department. This schedule is based on return of approval drawings within two weeks.

2. Our price is based upon our standard corrugated Stypolight TME as called for in the Specifications. However, it does not meet the flame spread rating of less than 50 which is also in the Specifications.

EXCLUSIONS:

1. Structural or miscellaneous steel.
2. Erection, including unloading, cartage, storage, hoisting, or special cutting, such as bevel, notch, or long cutting.
3. Louver screens.
4. Man Doors (Specification Section 8A)
5. Powered Sliding Doors (Specification Section 8B).

SPECIAL CONDITIONS:

1. The price in this quotation is firm for delivery of materials prior to June 30, 1977. The price of material delivered after June 30, 1977 must be renegotiated prior to June 30, 1977. The price increases as described above will apply to customer and job site delays. They will not apply when delivery delays have been caused by Robertson.
2. All Robertson shipping schedules are based on our material suppliers current allocations and schedules. Robertson will not assume any responsibility for delays to any established schedules due to revised commitments from our suppliers.
3. Your specific attention is directed to our maximum allowable terms of payment as described in the Standard General Conditions of this quotation. Our price is based on these terms. Retention on material only orders is not acceptable.
