Congress Gets Pay Cut Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In the absence of a rush to repeal the $12,500 pay raise congressmen accepted on March 1, Rep. Paul Findley, R-Ill., came up Friday with a compromise proposal—to cut the pay raise in half, at least for a while.

Findley said he will offer the temporary and partial pay waiver as a symbolic economy move when the House takes up later this month a multibillion dollar catchall money bill. The bill would cover the 12 per cent congressional increase.

Defense officials, in appearances before congressional committees, have repeatedly used a $6.6 billion figure as the cost of deploying Safeguard.

But last Monday, the Pentagon, in response to queries, said this failed to include the $1.2 billion for warheads which is carried in the budget of the Atomic Energy Commission.
